KTIMA VOGIATZI

2001 Vin de Pays de Velvendos

A gorgeous scent of spicy black fruit and white flowers wafts from the wine, a blend of xinomavro, cabernet sauvignon, and merlot.

The floral note hovers throughout the taste, as dense smoky chocolaty fruit flavors flow underneath. Firm tannin and strong acidity hold the flavor long and strong, and promise this will only get better in the cellar.

KTIMA VOGIATZI

2002 Vin de Pays de Vevendos

Tart and bright with lovely spice, this xoinomavro-cabernet-merlot blend from the cool far north of Greece is soft yet refreshing, its tart cherry-cranberry flavors paved with spice. Play up its gamey side with lamb sausages

2003 Vin de Pays Velvendos

Vogiatzis, the enologist from Boutari, produced a bright, rich wine from his own estate this year, intense in its violet-scented purple fruit and spice...
